Good morning to the Principal, teachers and fellow friends. First and foremost, I would like to thank the Principal for giving me the opportunity to deliver my speech entitled "Ways To Keep Calm".

Nowadays we lead a hectic life, rushing, hurrying around and worrying that make us stressful and unhappy. By learning to calm down, we can feel more relaxed. Take five minutes to sit quietly and do nothing. Close your eyes and breathe slowly at least once a day.

Keep something that will make you laugh. It could be your favourite comedy books or jokes. You could also watch comedies on television as laughter helps you to create a positive mood. Always keep pleasant thoughts in your mind, by thinking about wonderful moments in life as this can promote positive feelings.

You should start your day with a good mood, this will help you to go through the day confidently and cheerfully. Hence, relax your body and mind when you wake up in the morning to clear your thoughts for the day.

To lead a healthy life, all of us must learn to keep calm and always think positively. Thank you.
