No. 85, Jalan Bahagia 1,
Taman Bahagia,
70400 Seremban,
Negeri Sembilan Darul Khusus.
21 JUNE 2010

Dear Najwa,

I am sorry for not replying your letter earlier. My family and I have just returned from Rantau Abang in Terengganu. We were there for two days.

At Rantau Abang, we were lucky to catch a glimpse of a leatherback turtle. It came up to the beach where our hotel was situated. It was very big – about two metres long. It came to lay eggs. The eggs were like ping pong balls but they were softer.

We took some pictures with the turtle. Here is one of the photographs taken there. The couple standing behind me is my parents. Mike is the one with spectacles and Susan, my younger sister, is taller than me.

I wish you were there with us. It was really fun to look at the live reptile and yet sad to think that the species is slowly becoming extinct.

Bye for today. I will write again when I am free.

Your friend,
Dianne

31. Dianne did not reply Najwa's letter earlier because
- A she was busy preparing for her examinations.
 - B she was busy taking photographs of her family.
 - C she was away on a holiday.
 - D her pet turtle laid eggs.

How does one fight tiredness? Here are five tips that can help you to do so.

- (1) Get enough sleep. An average adult needs at least eight hours of sleep a day. Some people may need more while others may need less.
- (2) Watch your diet. Taking food that contains too much carbohydrates will make you sleepy. Fattening food will make you feel less energetic because they take longer time to digest. Eat plenty of fruits and vegetables. Do not overeat. The best way is to eat five small meals a day.
- (3) Exercise regularly but do not exert yourself.
- (4) Breathe in deeply and slowly. Do it three times.
- (5) Know what is troubling you. Face your problems bravely so that you do not have to waste your energy thinking about them.
